Columbus, OH Session Schedule

David Levin-Kruss

Attend as many classes as your schedule allows!

Wednesday, May 2, NOON—1:30 PM. Downtown lunch class, 300 E. Broad St., first floor conference room.

Topic: It's My Life and I'll Take It If I Want To! How do we balance the delicate issues of the sanctity of life and of suffering? Do we have the right to end our lives? May we help others to do this?

Kosher box lunch available for purchase at $10. RSVP required for lunch by 6PM, Monday, April 30.

Wednesday, May 2, 7:00 PM. Columbus Jewish Foundation boardroom, 1175 College Ave.

Topic: Ma'ariv VS. Moonlight. One evening in Berlin, AJ Heschel was faced with a dilemma. Should he say the evening service or should he enjoy the sunset? Find out what he did and what a range of Jewish thinkers (Kaplan, Leibowitz, Soloveitchik) including you, would do in this situation. We'll examine how mitzvot, holiness and prayer have changed in the modern world, yet can be meaningful concepts for us today.

Thursday, May 3, 9:00 AM—10:30 AM. JCC board room

Topic: Little Adults? Small People?-- Childhood and Adolescence in the Talmud. Is the idea of childhood as a distinct phase in life a modern idea? Is childhood something to be savored and enjoyed in and of itself, or is it a time when we tame the savage beast within our youngsters?

Thursday, May 3, NOON—1:30 PM. Lunch class, Easton Town Center Community Room, located at the north end of the "Station" near Forever XXI. Entrance is accessible only from the outside of the building and is across from McDonalds on Gramercy Street.

Topic: Clothes Maketh the Priest - or the Commoner! How many times have we commented on the superficiality of appearances while looking for the perfect tie or accessory? In this class we take a positive view of caring about externalities and learn how wise choices can help us express ourselves as people, as Jews, and as leaders.

Kosher box lunch available for purchase at $10. RSVP required for lunch by 6PM, Tuesday, May 1.

Thursday, May 3, 7:00 PM. Temple Israel, 5419 E. Broad St.

Topic: So Near and Yet So Far. What happens when we realize that we will not get everything we want in life? What happens when we have to accept that what we most cherish will be withheld? Moses and Martin Luther King both saw but did not reach the Promised Land but part of their legacy consists of tools to accept limitations while looking forward.

Help us fund this outstanding program. Your contribution of $36 to $360, based on Pardes' importance to you, will keep it ongoing. However, all are welcome to attend as many classes as they wish regardless of contribution.

Your timely RSVP enables us to have enough source sheets and refreshments.
